

The Great Communities Collaborative Toolkit

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Introduction

- Why do we need a Great Communities Collaborative? 1-1
- Transit Station Area Plans and TOD: Bay Area Opportunities and Hot Spots 1-5

2. Handouts: What Makes a Great Community?

- What is Transit Oriented Development 2-0
- Great Communities and Affordable Housing 2-1
- The Benefits of Compact Development 2-3
- Traffic-Lite: Great Communities Have Less Traffic 2-5
- Rational Parking 2-7
- Preventing Residential Displacement 2-9
- Incorporating Community Benefits 2-11
- Design for Walking and Biking 2-13
- Creating Quality Public Spaces 2-15
- Green Development 2-17
- Vibrant Neighborhood Businesses and Great Communities 2-19
- Great Communities Take Care of Children and Families 2-21
- Great Communities Create Less Air Pollution 2-23
- Policy Checklist 2-25

3. Developing a Station Area Plan Campaign

- Advocating for a High Quality Transit Station Area Plan 3-1
- Typical City Process and Timeline for Developing a Transit Station Area Plan 3-3
- Designing a Campaign Plan 3-4
- Goals, Strategies and Tactics 3-5
- Developing a Platform 3-6
- Building a Coalition 3-8
- Event Planning 3-10
- Sample Letter to City Council 3-14
- How to Engage your Constituency: Focus Groups 3-18

4. Message and Media

- Part 1: Securing Media Stories for your Station Area Plan Campaign 4-1
- Part 2: Getting Media Coverage - Moving your Advocacy Agenda 4-2
- Part 3: Media Campaign Checklist 4-5
- Press Advisories and Press Releases 4-6
- How to Hold a Press Conference 4-8
- Editorials, Opinion Editorials and Letters to the Editor 4-11

5. Appendix

- Policy Fact-Sheets
- TOD Stories
- Urbemis: A New Era in Traffic Modeling